

Vision:

To build a just society for establishing comprehensive child rights through education based on social justice and equity

Mission:

To establish education, protection and all rights for all children by ascertain social ownership on water, forest, land and other natural resources.