- To form a mass movement for establishing quality and equity education (Common School System), which is based on life centric, for all children
- To have an alliance with like-minded individuals, organisations, networks for establishing comprehensive child rights
- To build a pressure group through civil society participation for influencing government policies and programmes
- To build up movement for social ownership on natural resources like water, forest and land